APPENDIX

Criteria for references

Cayman Law requires 3 reference letters submitted with each director, shareholder, manager and controller application.

All references must be dated within six months of receipt of the application.

1 Financial Reference Letter

Each letter must comply with the following minimal standards:

- The reference must be from a financial institution;
- The reference should state whether the account has been satisfactorily maintained;
- The relationship must be for at least two years; and
- The reference must be signed and on a company letterhead.

2 Character Reference Letters

The letters must address the following minimal standards:

- The person writing the reference must not have a familial relationship to the applicant;
- The applicant must be known to the person writing the reference for a period of at least three years and the nature of the relationship must be disclosed;
- The person writing the reference must be independent, without a vested interest in the acceptability of the reference. For example, letters from employees of the applicant who work under their influence are not acceptable.
- The reference must be signed and indicate a contact name and address; and
- The references should address the applicant's honesty, integrity and reputation as well as their competence and capability in fulfilling their proposed role.
