1. These Regulations may be cited as the Monetary Authority (Administrative Fines) Regulations (2019 Revision).

Definitions

2. In these Regulations —

“appeal” means an appeal for which leave is granted by the Grand Court under regulation 19 and any further appeals relating to the decision on such an appeal;

“breach notice” means a notice complying with regulation 11 of the Authority’s intention to impose a fine, issued by the Authority to a party that the Authority believes has breached a prescribed provision;

“discretionary fine” means —

- (a) a proposed fine for which the Authority has fine discretions; or

(b) a fine that the Authority exercised fine discretions to impose;

“discount agreement” means an agreement in principle between the Authority and a party that has breached a prescribed provision about the amount of a proposed discretionary fine;

“fine discretions” means the Authority’s discretions under section 42B(5) of the Law about whether or not to impose a fine or its amount;

“fine notice” means a notice complying with regulation 15 issued by the Authority to a party that has breached a prescribed provision of the fine;

“fixed fine” means a fine referred to in section 42B(1) of the Law;

“fixed fine (continuing)” means a fine referred to in section 42B(2) of the Law;

“give”, in relation to a notice or information, includes to deliver, provide, send or transmit the notice or information;

“interest” means interest accrued or accruing on a fine under regulation 25;

“notice” means written information given, or to be given, electronically or by another mode of communication;

“original decision” means the Authority’s decision —

(a) in relation to a fixed fine or fixed fine (continuing), to impose the fine; or

(b) in relation to a discretionary fine, to impose the fine, about its amount, or both;

“party”, in relation to a provision of these Regulations about a breach, fine or proposed fine, means the person on whom the fine has been imposed or is being proposed or considered to be imposed;

“rectification notice” means a notice to the Authority by a party that has breached a prescribed provision that the breach was rectified within thirty days after the party received the breach notice;

“reply” means a notice to the Authority by a party who has received a breach notice, making representations opposing the Authority’s proposed action to impose a fine;

“reply period” means a period stated in a breach notice within which the party who received the notice may give a reply to the Authority;

“stayed”, in relation to a fine, means that the fine may not be imposed because of the operation of an order under regulation 22(2); and

“winding up notice” means a demand under section 93(a) of the Companies Law (2018 Revision) as it applies under a law of the Islands or a similar demand under the legislation of another jurisdiction.

PART 2 - PRESCRIBED MATTERS

Breaches and their categories

Breach of prescribed provisions to be proceeded with under Part VI of the Law

3. (1) The breach of a prescribed provision set out in column 2 of Schedule 1 of the Regulations set out in column 1 of that Schedule may be proceeded with under Part VIA of the Law.
- (2) In relation to proceedings under Part VIA of the Law, each breach of a prescribed provision is classified in column 3 of Schedule 1 as minor, serious or very serious.

Discretionary fine criteria

When the criteria apply

4. Regulations 5 and 6 prescribe, in relation to section 42F(1)(a) of the Law, criteria for exercising fine discretions when —
 - (a) issuing breach notices;
 - (b) considering or reconsidering matters under regulations 12(2) or 23(2)(b); and
 - (c) imposing discretionary fines.

General criteria in relation to both fine and amount

5. (1) The criteria referred to in regulation 4 are —
 - (a) the nature and seriousness of the breach;
 - (b) the degree of the party's inadvertence, intent or negligence in committing the breach;
 - (c) if the breach is a continuing one, its duration;
 - (d) the measures or precautions the party took to prevent the breach;
 - (e) the measures or precautions that a reasonable person in the party's position, acting prudently and exercising due diligence, would have taken to prevent the breach;
 - (f) whether or not the breach was due to —
 - (i) reasonable reliance on information given to the party; or
 - (ii) a cause beyond the party's control, including, for example, someone else's act or default or an accident;
 - (g) the degree of difficulty in detecting the breach;

- (h) evidence of intent by the party to conceal the breach or mislead the Authority;
 - (i) the party's conduct after becoming aware of the breach, including, for example —
 - (i) whether and how quickly the party brought the breach to the Authority's attention; and
 - (ii) the party's efforts to remedy the breach or prevent its reoccurrence;
 - (j) any financial or other damage or loss or other harm done or caused by the breach, including, for example, to —
 - (i) the party's creditors, customers, investors, policyholders or shareholders;
 - (ii) financial markets; or
 - (iii) the performance of the Authority's functions;
 - (k) whether, before or after the breach, there was a change to the party's business or affairs that affects or may affect the consequences of the breach for the party, including, for example, the party's ability to pay a fine;
 - (l) if the Authority has imposed a fine on the party in similar circumstances to the breach, the amount of that fine; and
 - (m) the party's history of compliance, in the five years before the breach, with the Anti-Money Laundering Regulations, 2017 and similar laws in other jurisdictions.
- (2) In considering the party's history of compliance, regard need only be had to the party's compliance with, and breaches of, those laws of which the Authority is aware or is made aware by the party.
- (3) Paragraph (2) applies even if no punishment was imposed or no other action relating to the breach was taken under those laws.

Additional criteria in relation to fine amount

6. In deciding the amount of a fine, the criteria also include —
- (a) the following in relation to the party —
 - (i) any circumstances of mitigation that may exist;
 - (ii) resources and ability to pay; and
 - (iii) financial hardship;
 - (b) potential adverse financial consequences on third parties of imposing a fine in the amount proposed; and

- (c) a circumstance that aggravates, or may tend to aggravate, the breach or its effects.

Power to discount usual fine to reflect agreement

7. (1) The Authority may, but need not, negotiate with a party to attempt to reach a discount agreement with the party, whether or not the Authority has given a breach notice.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (3), the Authority may discount the usual fine to reflect the fact of the discount agreement and the stage in the fine process under Part 3 at which the agreement was reached.
- (3) The Authority shall not discount any component of the usual fine that represents the application of the disgorgement principle under section 42F of the Law.
- (4) In this regulation, “usual fine” means the amount of the fine the Authority decided, or would otherwise have decided —
- (a) before taking into account the discount agreement; and
 - (b) after considering —
 - (i) all factors and criteria and the order of importance under section 42F of the Law; and
 - (ii) the criteria prescribed in regulations 5 and 6.

Forms

Prescribed forms

8. Schedule 2 prescribes forms for use, subject to regulation 10, under these Regulations.

PART 3 - FINE PROCESS

General

Steps required

9. (1) The Authority may only impose a fixed fine or discretionary fine by taking the following steps —
- (a) giving the party a breach notice;
 - (b) if regulation 12 or 13 applies, complying with that regulation; and
 - (c) giving the party a fine notice.
- (2) However, the following exceptions apply in relation to discretionary fines —

- (a) if the party entered into a discount agreement for the breach and the fine is no more than the amount agreed under the agreement, a fine notice may be given without first giving a breach notice; and
 - (b) if, under regulation 23(2), a fine is varied on appeal, the steps do not apply to the fine as varied.
- (3) The Authority may only impose a fixed fine (continuing) —
- (a) by giving the party a fine notice; and
 - (b) if the relevant fixed fine is not stayed.
- (4) A decision relating to the imposition of a fixed fine, a fixed fine (continuing) or a discretionary fine need only be made on the balance of probabilities.

General provisions in relation to fine and breach notices

10. The following apply in relation to a breach notice or fine notice —

- (a) it is not mandatory to use the prescribed form under Schedule 2;
- (b) the notice may be in another form that substantially complies with the relevant requirements under this Part;
- (c) the notice is deemed to comply with those requirements if —
 - (i) its form appears to follow the prescribed form; and
 - (ii) it has been completed, or substantially completed, in the way required by the prescribed form; and
- (d) if the notice contains an inaccuracy, it is only invalid because of the inaccuracy if the party establishes that the inaccuracy was material and it misled the party.

Breach notice and reply

Requirements for breach notice

11. (1) A breach notice shall be dated and state all of the following —

- (a) the party's name;
- (b) that the Authority proposes to impose a fine on the party for a specified breach that it believes the party committed;
- (c) the prescribed provision for which the fine is proposed to be imposed;
- (d) the nature of the specified breach;
- (e) a summary of the facts and circumstances that the Authority believes constituted the specified breach;
- (f) either —

- (i) in relation to a fixed fine, that the fine is fixed at five thousand dollars; or
 - (ii) in relation to a discretionary fine, the fine the Authority proposes for the specified breach;
 - (g) that the party may give the Authority a reply within the reply period; and
 - (h) that, for a fixed fine, the party may give the Authority a rectification notice.
- (2) The reply period is required to end at least thirty days after the giving of the breach notice.

Duty to consider reply

- 12. (1) This regulation applies only if —
- (a) a breach notice has been given for a fixed fine, fixed fine (continuing) or discretionary fine;
 - (b) the reply period has ended; and
 - (c) a reply has been given.
- (2) The Authority has a duty to —
- (a) reconsider whether it still holds the belief stated in the breach notice, in the light of all matters raised in the reply concerning that belief; and
 - (b) if the notice was for a discretionary fine, consider the matters raised in the reply to the extent they are relevant to exercising fine discretions.

Rectification of a breach subject to a fixed fine

- 13. (1) This regulation applies only if —
- (a) a breach notice has been given for a fixed fine;
 - (b) the party subject to the breach notice rectified the breach specified in the notice within thirty days of receiving the notice;
 - (c) the reply period has ended; and
 - (d) a rectification notice has been given.
- (2) The Authority has a duty to consider, in light of the matters raised in the rectification notice, whether the specified breach was rectified within thirty days of the issue of the breach notice to its satisfaction.
- (3) If the Authority is satisfied that the breach was rectified as described in paragraph (2) and, in the case of the breach of a filing requirement that the party has requested a filing extension and paid any applicable filing extension fees, the Authority shall —

- (a) refrain from issuing a fine notice or imposing a fine on the party for the breach; and
- (b) give the party notice of its decision in accordance with regulation 14(6).

Imposing a fine

Decision about fine

- 14. (1) This regulation applies at the end of the reply period in relation to a breach notice if —
- (a) no reply has been given;
 - (b) a reply has been given and the Authority has complied with regulation 12; or
 - (c) a rectification notice has been given and the Authority has complied with regulation 13.
- (2) If the breach notice was for a fixed fine or fixed fine (continuing) and the Authority still holds the belief stated in the notice and is not satisfied that the breach was rectified within thirty days of the issue of the notice, the Authority is required to impose the fine.
- (3) If the notice was for a discretionary fine, the fine discretions may be exercised.
- (4) The amount of a discretionary fine shall not be more than the amount stated in the notice.
- (5) If the Authority imposes a fine, it may decide that the fine is payable immediately on the giving of a fine notice or within a particular period after that time.
- (6) If the Authority decides not to impose any fine, it is required to give the party notice of the decision within fifteen days after the end of the reply period.

Requirements for fine notice

- 15. (1) A fine notice is required to be dated and state all of the following —
- (a) the party's name;
 - (b) that the Authority has imposed a specified fine on the party;
 - (c) the amount of the fine; and
 - (d) when the fine is required to be paid.
- (2) If the specified fine is a fixed fine, the fine notice shall state —
- (a) the prescribed provision for which the fine is imposed;
 - (b) a description of the breach;

- (c) if a reply was given during the reply period, the reasons why the Authority still holds the belief stated in the breach notice;
 - (d) if a rectification notice was given within the reply period, the reasons why the Authority is not satisfied that the breach was rectified within thirty days of the issue of the breach notice; and
 - (e) that the party may, within thirty days after receiving the fine notice, apply to the Management Committee to review the decision to impose the fine.
- (3) If the specified fine is a fixed fine (continuing), the fine notice shall state —
- (a) the date of the fine notice given for the relevant fixed fine; and
 - (b) that the party may, within thirty days after receiving the fine notice, apply to the Management Committee to review the decision to impose the fine.
- (4) If the specified fine is a discretionary fine, the fine notice shall state —
- (a) the prescribed provision for which the fine is imposed;
 - (b) a description of the breach;
 - (c) the reasons for the way in which fine discretions were exercised; and
 - (d) that the party may, within thirty days after receiving the fine notice apply to the Grand Court for leave to appeal against the decision to impose the fine, its amount or both.

PART 4 - REVIEWS AND APPEALS

Internal review of fixed fines by the Authority

Application to Management Committee for review

- 16. (1) A party that has received a fine notice for a fixed fine or fixed fine (continuing) may apply to the Authority for its Management Committee to review the original decision.
- (2) An application under this regulation shall be made in the prescribed form, within thirty days after receiving the notice.

No stay of original decision

- 17. A review does not stay the operation of the original decision.

Management Committee decision on application for review

- 18. (1) The Management Committee shall, within twenty days after receiving an application for review, reconsider the original decision and decide whether to affirm it or set it aside.
- (2) The Management Committee shall, within ten days after making a decision on the application, give the party notice of its decision.
- (3) If the decision is to affirm the original decision, the notice of the decision on the application for review shall also state —
- (a) the reasons for the decision; and
- (b) that the party may apply to the Grand Court for judicial review of the decision.
- (4) If the decision is to set aside the original decision, it is deemed never to have been made.
- (5) The Supervisory Head of the division of the Authority that made the original decision may make written representations to the Management Committee concerning an application for review of the original decision, but shall not otherwise participate in any discussion, decision, debate or vote of the Management Committee concerning the review.

Appeal against discretionary fines to Grand CourtApplication to the Grand Court for leave to appeal

- 19. (1) A party that receives a fine notice for a discretionary fine may apply to the Grand Court for leave to appeal against the original decision within thirty days after receiving the notice.
- (2) The Grand Court may only grant leave to appeal under this regulation if —
- (a) the party has grounds for seeking judicial review of the decision; or
- (b) the decision was made with a lack of proportionality or was not rational.
- (3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a party may not apply for leave to appeal against the original decision if the party entered into a discount agreement for the breach and the fine is no more than the amount agreed to.

Application of Grand Court Rules and practice directions about judicial reviews

- 20. (1) The Grand Court Rules 1995 and the Court's practice directions about judicial reviews apply to an appeal, with necessary changes, as if the appeal were an application for judicial review.

- (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the Court's rules about alternative dispute resolution do not apply to the appeal.

Security for costs

21. The Authority may apply to the Grand Court —

- (a) for an order that the appellant provide sufficient security for costs; and
- (b) for a stay of the appeal proceedings until such security is provided.

Stay of original decision only by application

22. (1) An appeal does not stay the operation of the original decision.

- (2) However, the Grand Court may, on the appellant's application, order that the fine imposed by the original decision be stayed to secure the effectiveness of the appeal.
- (3) The stay ordered by the Grand Court —
 - (a) may be given on conditions that the Court considers appropriate;
 - (b) operates for the period fixed by the Court; and
 - (c) may be amended or revoked by the Court.
- (4) The period of a stay shall not extend past when the Grand Court decides the appeal.

Hearing and outcome

23. (1) An appeal may only be decided on the evidence on which the Authority exercised the relevant fine discretions.

- (2) After hearing an appeal, the Grand Court may —
 - (a) affirm, set aside or vary the original decision; or
 - (b) set aside the original decision and remit the matter to the Authority for it to reconsider subject to such directions as the Court considers fit.
- (3) The following apply if the Grand Court's decision is to affirm the original decision or to vary it in a way that a fine is still imposed —
 - (a) the Court's decision is (other than in relation to regulations 9, 16 and 19) deemed to have always been the original decision;
 - (b) the Court may, at the Authority's request, give judgment against the party for all or any part of the fine that continues to be owing, and for interest; and
 - (c) the Authority's request may be made during the appeal, when the Court's decision is handed down or at any later time on the tendering of a certificate under regulation 29(3)(d) about the amount owing.

- (4) If the Grand Court's decision is to set aside and not to remit the matter to the Authority for reconsideration —
 - (a) both the fine and interest are deemed to have never been owing; and
 - (b) any fixed fine (continuing) imposed for the breach is deemed to have also been set aside and to have never been owing.

PART 5 - PAYMENT AND ENFORCEMENT

Fine is a debt to the Crown

- 24. (1) A fine becomes a debt owing to the Crown on the day the fine was required to be paid under the relevant fine notice.
- (2) Paragraph (1) is subject to any setting aside or variation of the fine on a review applied for under regulation 16 or an appeal.

Interest on fines

- 25. (1) Interest of five percent a year accrues while all or any part of a fine continues to be owing, starting on the day immediately after the fine becomes a debt to the Crown and ending on the day the fine is paid in full, both days inclusive.
- (2) The interest accrues daily and as compound interest.
- (3) The interest is also a debt owing to the Crown.
- (4) The accruing of interest applies even while the fine is stayed.
- (5) Payments relating to the fine are to be applied to the interest first.
- (6) This regulation is subject to any setting aside or variation of the fine in a review applied for under regulation 16 or an appeal.

Payment of more than one fine

- 26. If more than one fine has been imposed on a party, payments for the fines are to be applied in the order in which the fines and interest became owing.

Enforcement

- 27. (1) The Crown may recover in a civil proceeding, as a debt, the unpaid amount of a fine or interest, or both.
- (2) However, paragraph (1) does not apply while the fine is stayed.
- (3) A proceeding to recover a debt under this regulation does not prevent —
 - (a) interest continuing to accrue on the total owing; or
 - (b) if the party is a body corporate, the Crown enforcing the fine by serving a winding up notice for the debt.

PART 6 - MISCELLANEOUS

Electronic notices by the Authority

- 28. (1) The Authority may give a party a notice for any purpose of these Regulations by sending it to an email address that the party last gave the Authority notice of, as follows —
- (a) the party’s email address;
 - (b) if the party is a body corporate (either in its own right or as a trustee of a trust), the email address of —
 - (i) any of its directors or members; or
 - (ii) its registered office provider; or
 - (c) if the party is a partnership, the email address of —
 - (i) any of its partners; or
 - (ii) its registered office provider (if it has a registered office).
- (2) In this regulation —
- “partners” does not include a limited partner of a limited partnership; and
- “registered office provider” means the person who provides or maintains the party’s registered office as required under a Law.

Evidentiary provisions

- 29. (1) This regulation applies to a proceeding under Part VIA of the Law, including a review applied for under regulation 16, an appeal, a proceeding referred to in regulation 26 and a proceeding resulting from the giving of a winding up notice for a fine or interest.
- (2) A signature purporting to be the signature of the managing director or anyone else acting on the Authority’s behalf is evidence of the signature it purports to be.
- (3) A certificate signed, or purporting to be signed, by the managing director or the managing director’s delegate stating a matter as follows is evidence of that matter —
- (a) that a stated document is a copy of a notice given under these Regulations;
 - (b) that an email address stated in the copy was, when the notice was given to its stated recipient, the recipient’s email address under regulation 28;
 - (c) that on a stated day the recipient was given the notice in a stated way;
 - (d) that a fine or interest of a stated amount, or both, are owing to the Crown by a stated person; or

- (e) that stated terms are the terms of a discount agreement.
- (4) For section 17 of the Electronic Transactions Law (2003 Revision), a certificate under paragraph (3)(b) is evidence that the notice was electronically given to its recipient at the time of giving stated in the notice.

Consultation requirements before issuing rules

- 30. Before issuing rules under section 42G of the Law, the Authority shall carry out private sector consultation and consult the Minister charged with responsibility for Financial Services about the proposed rules.

Transitional provision

- 31. The Authority shall not impose a fixed fine, fixed fine (continuing) or a discretionary fine or take any steps to do so under Part 3 in respect of the breach of a prescribed provision that took place before the 15th December, 2017 or within ninety days after that date.
