NOTICE

RE: CIMA Office Closure Update

Further to our earlier notice dated 19 March, the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority (CIMA) will be closing its office on Friday, 20 March 2020 as part of its business continuity plan. Select staff will be working remotely to handle pressing matters. Any urgent queries should be directed to the respective divisions via email. General contact details can also be found here.

Subject to recommendations from the Cayman Islands Government, staff will return to work to resume normal business hours on Monday, 23 March 2020.
